Short-term help

You may be referred to get short-term reablement support from The Short Term Intervention Team (STIT) or the hospital's CICS team. These teams are collectively known as The Active Recovery Team.

This kind of support can make a real difference when getting better after an illness, a fall, or after an operation. And it can help you to regain your independence in your own home.

The team will:

- give you information and advice about organisations near to you that can help you regain independence in your own home.
- provide help and support so that you're able to continue to live in your own home without any support or the right level of long term support to meet your needs. This might be help with personal care (washing and getting dressed), preparing meals and medication.
- help you to regain your independence by providing the opportunity to talk through what you're struggling with, and either learn new ways to do the things you've always done, or by using equipment to support you.

LiveWell at Home offer short term support to help you to live independently in the community. There's help available in your local area, whether you're an owner occupier or live in rented accommodation.

If you're aged 55 or over with an age related health condition, you can contact the Live Well at Home prevention and outreach service. This is a free service run by South Yorkshire Housing Association. They offer flexible support in a setting of your choice related to your health or housing needs:

- support following a hospital stay (if you need a more suitable home or adaptations).
- help to seek advice on managing your health and staying well.
- advice on how to maximise income, apply for grants and benefits.

- advice on budgeting and managing debt.
- finding a new home and helping you look at options.
- a 17-point 'Home Check' which identifies issues like hoarding, damp, repairs and potential adaptations.
- signposting to wellbeing services, with a focus on Dementia and physical health.
- help you identify community groups and activities. We believe no-one should feel lonely or isolated.
- signposting to services to help you quit smoking and cut down on alcohol.

Sheffield City Council's City Wide Care Alarms service is available to anyone over the age of 18 and can help people remain safe, secure and independent in their own home. An alarm button is worn and together with a base unit (which you can hear and speak through thanks to its powerful microphone and loudspeaker), can give you access to help from a call monitoring centre. Occupational Therapy support

Sheffield City Councils Occupational Therapy Team helps people of all ages who need advice on how to remain at home, safe, well and active.

We can help you if you're finding it increasingly difficult to carry out daily tasks, such as: getting in and out of your home, making your own meals, getting out of a chair, your bed or bathing and toileting. We could help you find different ways to do daily activities.

We can:

- Provide minor adaptations such as grab rails, second stair rail or handrail outside to help with mobility.
- Discuss and provide specialist equipment to aid your daily living such as perching stools, kitchen trolleys, specialist beds, chairs, toilet frames.
- Discuss major adaptations such as ramps for wheelchair access, stairlifts, level access showers.
- If you have a carer, we will support them to work out the best way to help you stay as active and independent as possible.

Call 📞 (0114) 273 4709 Mon-Fri 9am-5pm, visit 🌐 www.sheffield.gov.uk/home/social-care/adapting-your-home or email 📧 CommunitiesEquip&Adaptations@sheffield.gov.uk.

If we can help, we will arrange a telephone or video assessment or a home visit. The assessment usually takes about an hour. If English isn't your first language, we can arrange an interpreter.

The assessment and minor adaptations are free of charge. Any equipment provided will be on a long-term loan, also free of charge. You may be eligible for a Disabled Facilities Grant towards the cost of major adaptations. This is a means-tested grant and you may need to pay a contribution. If you're a council tenant, adaptations will be free of charge.

Supported Living

Supported Living services support tenants, people who own their own home and people who live with family carers, so they can live as independently and safely as possible.

You may want this support because you have a learning disability, a physical disability or sensory impairment.

You may want a few hours of support a day or week to help you with the things you have to do, or you may want 24 hour support to help with your care. Your support can help with things like:

- managing bills and money including applying for benefits and paying rent
- contacting your landlord about repairs
- cooking and healthy eating
- getting a job
- shopping, housework or gardening
- learning new skills for independence
- personal care and well-being
- managing medication
- accessing employment, sports and social activities.

People who have support from a Supported Living service can live in a variety of different places, like:

- a home you share with someone else, or a group of people. You all agree to live together in shared accommodation.
- a home you live in on your own – a flat, house or bungalow.
- living at home with family.

Many of these services in Sheffield have agreed to meet Sheffield City Council's standards for good quality care and support that is centred around people.

The standards help make sure people are supported to achieve their goals. When a service provider meets these standards they are included on the Supported Living Framework.

You can find details of all the services that meet these standards on the Sheffield Directory:  www.sheffielddirectory.org.uk/housingsupport.

If you think you want help from the Council to arrange your Supported Living contact the Council's First Contact Team. (details on p18).

Moving to a more suitable home

There's a whole range of housing services that can help you be as independent as possible, delaying the time when you'll have to consider moving into a care home.

Mutual Exchange

Thousands of tenants have been helped to swap their Council or Housing Association home with other social tenants. This is known as Mutual Exchange. This can help if you need to move to a different part of the city or even to another part of the UK, or if you want to swap because your home is no longer suitable for you. You can apply to swap homes if you're a tenant of Sheffield City Council or a Registered Social Landlord.

You can find someone to swap with yourself, or you can go to the Sheffield Property Shop website to find further information on mutual exchanges  www.sheffieldpropertyshop.org.uk.

If you're a Sheffield City Council tenant you can advertise to exchange your tenancy free of charge on the national Home-swapper website:  www.homeswapper.co.uk.

If you're interested in doing a Mutual Exchange and want more advice you can call the Housing Call Centre on  (0114) 293 0000 or  (0114) 205 3333, or visit us at the Sheffield Property Shop, Howden House (details on p18)

Downsizing

If you're in social housing you can also apply to move to a smaller property which could be more manageable for your needs. You may be awarded priority to do this. You can find out more about this on the Sheffield Property Shop website: 🌐 www.sheffieldpropertyshop.org.uk. You'll also find great advice to help you get this right – or you can call the Property Shop on 📞 (0114) 293 0000 (North Sheffield), 📞 (0114) 205 3333 (South Sheffield). If you're in a council property your Neighbourhood Housing Office will be happy to visit you and talk to you about downsizing.

Medical priority rehousing

The Council's Health and Housing team can help you if you're having problems in your home because of a health condition or disability. This includes things like:

- you have severe mobility problems and cannot reach essential facilities in your home, like the toilet, bath or shower, or you cannot get in or out of your home.
- you have to live closer to a carer, or your carer has to live closer to you, for essential support with daily living.
- you have a long term health or mental health problem and your housing situation is making your problems significantly worse and you find it difficult to live independently.

The Health and Housing team can also advise you on support to allow you to remain in your home.

They will also liaise with the Equipment and Adaptations team to see if any equipment or adaptations would enable you to remain independent in your home.

To apply for medical priority housing, fill in an application form. To get a form call 📞 (0114) 273 5522, email 📧 healthandhousingneeds@sheffield.gov.uk or call into any Council housing office or First Point.

Residential care and nursing homes

Deciding to move into a care home is a big decision, that's why we've given you details of all the other ways you can get help to live in your own home. But if you're considering this, it's important to get good advice so you know what will be right for you. In this section, we've provided some helpful advice and answers to frequently asked questions to help you make the right choice for you.

How will I know if I should move into a care home?

You may not have to move into a home – there are now lots of ways you can get help to remain at home.

As well as the advice we've provided above, the Council's First Contact Team can give you, or your family and friends, ideas of how you can support yourself and how to proceed. You'll find their contact details on p18.

If you're paying for your care and support and feel you cannot be independent in your home any longer, contact any of the homes in the guide to discuss the cost of your place, how you'll pay them and when you can move in. We strongly recommend you use the advice in this guide to help you choose a home.

If you want help from the Council to arrange your move, contact the First Contact Team (details on p18). The Council will talk to you about the problems you're having. If the Council agrees you need to live in a home, they will help arrange your place in a home. The Council will also talk to you about your finances. Unlike NHS healthcare, social care is not free. Most people pay for some or all of their care and support in a home.

Your finances include your income (including benefits and pensions) and your savings or investments. The Council will use national rules based on the Care Act 2014 to work out what you can afford to pay and what, if anything, the Council will contribute towards the cost of your place in the home.

Getting financial help

When paying for a place in a care home there are 2 key principles which apply to everyone:

- You'll never have to pay more money towards the cost of a care home than you can afford.
- If you have £23,250 in capital (such as savings) you'll have to pay the full cost of your care.

To work out how much you have to pay for your care, the council first take into account your capital, and then your income.

Your capital can include the value of any cash, savings, stocks and shares you have.

Your income can include money you regularly receive from a pension, charity or other organisation.

Working out your capital

Things you should take into account:

- the total value of the cash, savings, stocks and shares you currently have
- the total value of anything you own that could be sold (excluding personal possessions).

It's important to know that the value of your home is counted as capital unless:

- your spouse or partner is still living in the property
- a relative aged 60+ years is still living in the property
- a relative who is substantially disabled is still living in the property
- a relative who is dependent on you and is aged under 18 is still living in the property
- a person who has cared for you and has been living with you for the past 5 years is still living in the property (subject to circumstance).

If you own your home you may be able to get a loan from the Council called a "Deferred Payment Agreement". Interest is charged on this loan, and it's secured against your property. The Council's First Contact Team can help you if you wish to apply for this (contact details on p18).

Capital over £23,250

If you have capital over £23,250 you'll have to pay the full cost of your care. This is known as being a 'self-funder'. This means you get a head start as you can contact care homes in this guide whenever you're ready.

Capital between £14,250 and £23,250

If you have capital over £14,250 but under £23,250 Sheffield City Council may contribute towards the cost, but will need to look at your care and support and financial circumstances in more detail.

Capital under £14,250

If you have capital worth less than £14,250, it will not be included, but your income will still be considered. Sheffield City Council may contribute towards the cost, but will need to look at your care and support and financial circumstances in more detail.

Working out your income

Your income can include any money you get regularly like:

- a pension or regular payment from a charity or other organisation
- benefits you receive (some benefits such as Working Tax Credit are not included)
- the council will also take into account an amount from the value of your capital, between £14,250 and £23,250. This is called Tariff Income. Tariff Income on this capital is not the actual interest you receive from it. The tariff income is calculated using Government rules.

Meeting with you

After the Council has talked to you about the problems you're having, they'll arrange for an officer to talk to you about your finances.

They will discuss all this with you and answer any questions you have. You can read more about this in the factsheet: Paying for your care and support in a residential or nursing home. Download a copy from the Council website:  www.sheffield.gov.uk/factsheets.

The factsheet explains what is and is not included in the income and capital calculations when the Council look at your finances.

When we're planning support with you, if we agree that your care and support needs are best met in a care home, we'll provide you with a choice of suitable care homes that are available and affordable within your personal budget. Your personal budget is the amount of money we've allocated to meet your care and support needs.

If you choose to live in a home that costs more than this amount, you'll need to ask someone else (like a relative, a friend or a charity) to pay the difference. This is called a 'top up'. They must sign a written agreement which sets out the extra costs and how often they have to be paid. If at any time they're not able to pay the top up, we may ask you to move to another home.

We can also give you information about a "Deferred Payment Agreement" which can help you pay your care and support contribution. This is an agreement between you and the Council to delay paying the costs of your care and support until a later date, or until your death.

If a nursing assessor decides you require nursing care in the home, NHS Sheffield will pay for the nursing part of your care. Unless you pay the full fee for your care yourself, this won't affect the amount you pay towards your care.

If you choose not to tell the Council about your finances you will have to pay for the full cost of your place in a home.

If you are funding your own care in a Residential / Nursing Home the Council advise that you seek independent financial and legal advice to make sure that you get all the income you can and get the best return from your capital.

You should continue to receive Attendance Allowance while you are paying for your own care, if you are not in receipt of this at the higher rate it is likely that you would be eligible if you need 24 hour care.

How to pay for your care in a home

If you arrange or pay for your place with the care home directly, you can agree how you will pay for your care with the manager of the home. If the Council is helping to arrange or pay toward the cost of your care in a home, or a relative or other representative is paying a top-up, you or they will pay Sheffield City Council. Most people prefer to pay by Direct Debit. It's the safest and most convenient way to pay. To talk to the Council about this contact the Residential Care Homes Payments and Support Team. Call 0114 273 6717 (select Option 1 and then Option 2 to speak to the team). Or email residentialsupport@sheffield.gov.uk and the team will call you back as soon as possible.

Getting financial advice

Choosing how to pay for your long-term care is a big decision. You should speak to a Financial Adviser (who is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority) to discuss which option is best for you.

A Financial Adviser will be able to discuss how you can help make your money last and let you know about financial products which are designed to help with paying care costs.

You will have to pay to see a Financial Adviser, but they must tell you how much their advice is going to cost. They must also tell you up-front whether it's a fixed fee or based on the time they spend working for you. Money Helper is a free, independent money advice service (backed by the Government). They can explain about the different types of Financial Adviser and help you to find a choice of Regulated Financial Advisers. You can call them on 🌐 www.moneyhelper.org.uk/en/getting-help-and-advice/financial-advisers/choosing-a-financial-adviser.

📞 0800 011 3797 or find out more on the Money Helper website:

If you're entering into a legal agreement with the Council or someone else (such as a Deferred Payment Agreement) you should also consider taking legal advice (for example from a solicitor or from Sheffield Citizens Advice and Law Centre, call 📞 0808 278 7820.

You can also get free and impartial information on money matters from a range of local and national organisations. This should not be instead of talking to a Financial Advisor, but can be very useful in addition to it.

Choosing a care home and what to do next

Don't forget what's important to you! This could be being close to family and friends, socialising, taking part in a local activity, or being able to enjoy time outdoors. Residential and nursing care homes in Sheffield differ in location, size, the special services they provide, equipment available and the cost. So it's always important to keep in the back of your mind those things that you feel are most important to you when choosing a home.

There are lots of things to think about when choosing a home, so to make things easier for you we've created a checklist of key questions to ask when choosing or visiting a home. You can find this at the end of this guide – Choosing a home checklist.

Also try finding out what others think. Check out what people in Sheffield are saying about local homes by reading some of the comments on the Healthwatch Sheffield website:

All the homes in Sheffield have to register with the Care Quality Commission (CQC). The CQC makes sure the homes meet minimum standards of good service, and then inspect the services regularly.

When you go to the CQC website:  www.cqc.org.uk, you can find the ratings for all homes in Sheffield and read their inspection report. We strongly advise you to read the most recent reports for the homes you are considering, because the standards in homes can alter for a variety of reasons. You can contact the CQC through their website or by calling them on  03000 616161.

What's the difference between a residential home and a nursing home?

A residential home provides 24 hour care by trained staff and is regularly visited by a district nurse. The type of care provided is similar to the care that you would get if a relative or friend looked after you (including washing and dressing, meals and going to the toilet). You can stay in a home for a short time (known as respite care) or live there permanently.

There are special homes for people with a learning disability, a physical or sensory impairment, a mental health problem, or a drug or alcohol problem.

A nursing home provides care like a residential home, but also provides 24 hour nursing care by trained nursing staff. The person in charge is always a qualified doctor or nurse.

For both a residential and nursing home you would get:

- your own room
- help to be as independent as possible
- 24 hour care support
- help with washing and dressing, at meal times and with going to the toilet.

Which home will I like?

We often hear that people find it easier to make a decision about the home they want to live in, after they have paid a visit. Therefore, we strongly recommend that you and your family and/or friends visit all the homes you're interested in, and consider visiting them at different times of day.

What happens if the home I choose is full?

If the home is full you can choose to live in a similar home while you wait. Then when a place is available you can choose either to move or stay where you are (this will depend on your individual circumstances).

What if I don't want to go into another home temporarily?

If you're not at risk the Council can give you advice on how you can support yourself to stay in your home until a vacancy is available. Of course, if you're at risk, or if your care and support can only be provided fully by living in a home, then the Council will advise you to move into another home temporarily.

Who decides when I cannot?

The Mental Capacity Act (2005) is there to help and support people to make their own decisions whenever possible. This includes helping people to plan for the future if they have a condition which affects how they make decisions (such as dementia or a learning disability). The Act aims to support people who lack capacity, but not restrict or control their lives.

To meet our responsibilities under the Act:

1. We will always start by assuming a person has capacity.
2. We will always first do all we can to help a person to make a decision, before we act or make a decision for them.
3. We will not treat a person as being unable to make a decision, just because they make an unwise decision.
4. We will always act or make a decision for a person in their best interests.
5. We will always consider when we act or make a decision for a person that it's the least restrictive of their rights and freedom of action.

The Mental Capacity Act sets out how to assess capacity and how decisions can be made if someone is assessed as lacking the capacity to make that decision. To find out more about this visit the Council website:

If you want help to make important decisions such as where to live, contact the First Contact Team (details on p18).

Living in a home

When you're living in a home, there are some things you should know that can help make sure you get a good standard of care:

Personal allowance: While you live in the home you will have a personal allowance. This is an amount of money that you must get to pay for personal items while you live in a home. Your personal allowance can't be used to pay for your place in a home. It should be used to pay for things like newspapers or magazines and for your personal care such as hairdressing and toiletries.

Making a comment, compliment or complaint: If you have a comment, compliment or complaint about a home there are several things you can do:

- Tell the staff at the home that you see every day.
- Speak with the person in charge of running the home. They are usually called the manager or matron.
- Speak with the 'residents committee' where you can put forward your ideas on running the home.
- Contact the Care Quality Commission (see details on p15).
- Contact the Council's Customer Services. Visit:  www.sheffield.gov.uk, or write to  Sheffield City Council Customer Services, Town Hall, Pinstone Street S1 2HH. Or visit the First Point desk at Howden House in the city centre (at 1 Union Street), or call  (0114) 273 4567.

Safeguarding Adults

People should be free to live a life free from harm and have their rights and choices respected. Some adults are less able to protect themselves and may find it difficult to let their wishes and feelings be known. This may make them more susceptible to abuse or neglect.

To find out more visit the Sheffield Adult Safeguarding Partnership website www.sheffieldasp.org.uk/sasp.

If you or someone you know is being abused or neglected, or is at risk of being abused or neglected don't ignore it!

Report your concerns to the Council's First Contact Team (details on the right).

What happens if I move into a residential home, and later require nursing care?

Tell the home manager or matron, as well as your family and/or friends. A nursing assessor will then decide if nursing care is required. If nursing care is required NHS Sheffield will pay for this.

What if I am living in a home and I don't like it?

After you move into a home there's always a trial period of up to four weeks. During this trial period if, for whatever reason the home is not suitable, there is an opportunity to move home. You or your family/friend should speak to the home manager or matron.
